

Scannable, touch free smart signage that you can launch in a day.

The world is changing. NowHive scannable signage let's you connect with your visitor again in a safe, touch free way. Just launch our scannable signage to replace kiosks, printed materials, and limit crowds in high traffic areas.

The process is easy. Load your content using our custom admin panel. Then, using just a camera phone (no app required), your visitors scan NowHive smart signage and get access to curated information loaded by you. Tell your story however you'd like—with a video, audio tour, downloadable menu, map, offer or more. Using the same sign, visitors can then share their stories back. They can upload their own photos, videos, blogs or reviews right at the point of an experience. It's that easy.
